About

I am a passionate and creative FX artist with a strong drive for exploration and continuous learning. With expertise in the field, I constantly seek out new techniques and stay updated with industry trends. In addition to my professional pursuits, I enjoy playing video games, watching anime, and have a keen sense of music. As a footballer, I find discipline and camaraderie on the field. Writing is another passion of mine, and I indulge in crafting poems, quotes, and songs.

My strengths lie in being a good listener, a fast learner, and always seeking opportunities for self-growth. I am an enthusiastic and versatile individual, eager to contribute my skills and passion to a dynamic team focused on excellence.
